

RECORD OF ADVICE FOR HEALTH SERVICE BENEFITS AND/OR GAP COVER

Important note to the client - Please read this document carefully.

It confirms that the recommendations mentioned herein have been discussed with me by the intermediary, based on the limited information provided by myself. Advice in respect to a financial product is regulated by the FAIS ACT. It also requires Global Wealth Advisory (Pty) Ltd to keep records of such advice.

Focused advice:

The intermediary (at your request) did a specific medical needs analysis, based on the available information received from you, and you accept that there may be limitations on the appropriateness of the advice, as other financial needs or information have not been taken into account. You therefore have to consider this advice based on your own objectives, financial circumstances, and particular needs.

GAP COVER:

GAP Cover is a short-term insurance stated benefit product that covers the difference between the medical aid rates and private rates charged by doctors or medical specialists for in-hospital treatment.

If GAP Cover is not taken up, the client is at risk of shortfalls that the medical scheme might not cover for in-hospital procedures.

The GAP cover chosen is underwritten by _____ and a contract will be provided by the intermediary. All benefits, claims, procedure, waiting periods, and general information are disclosed in the contract. The client understands that there are similar products in the market, but the GAP Cover chosen was the most suitable product according to the client's preferences.

Is this a replacement of an existing GAP cover policy? YES ☐ NO ☐

DECLARATION BY CLIENT:Initial:

I understand the recommendation and the impact of my decision on my financial portfolio.

I acknowledge that the recommendations are limited to the information provided above and I should consider the advice based on my own objectives, financial situation, and particular needs.

I have made an informed decision, as confirmed, and accepted.

I confirm that I understand that it is illegal to belong to/be a dependant on more than one registered Medical Scheme at a time and that all my dependents and I will cease our current medical scheme cover with my/our current Scheme prior to joining the new Scheme.

DECLARATION BY INTERMEDIARY:

I have made all the disclosure requirements in terms of the Financial Advisors and Intermediary Services Act (FAIS)

The commission payable to the intermediary is currently 3% of an annual premium income to a max of R111.18 whichever is the lesser per principal member (excl. VAT) monthly in arrears. The said commission has no effect on the final payment made by the client to the Medical Scheme concerned.

I am accredited to market the products as discussed and recommended and I have explained the material terms and conditions of the contract to the client.

I declare that the advice record is an accurate and complete record of the recommendations and advice that I provided the client with based upon the information provided by the client.
